FISHING BY TELEGRAPH.—The latest novelty is the use of the telegraph in the Norwegian fishery. The deep sea fishery from the Naze to Varanger Fjord extend over a range of 1,200 miles.

Telegraphic stations are erected at different points on the coast, and the inspectors cause daily notices to be given of the appearance and position of each shoal. "Field" telegraphs are kept in readiness to be joined on to the main line, and thus the slightest movement of the shoals is carefully watched and communicated; and it is a curious sight to witness the sudden exodus of thousands of fishermen, with their train of buyers, vendors, with boats, barrels and appliances, hastening to a distant place at the call of the telegraph. The men seem to prize highly this valuable coadjutor, and when the catch is fishy, telegraph herring. And thus the benefit likely to accrue from the use of the telegraph is incalculable.

MUSCULAR CHRISTIAN.—The Newburyport Herald reports that a clergyman, in the ears, recently, requested a young man to cease annoying a lady passenger. The rowdy informed the clerical gentleman that he would make mince-meat of him, whereupon the person rose, took off his coat, and quietly remarked: "You said you were going to make mince-meat of me. Perhaps it is time to begin the operation. If you are ready, I am." On this manifestation of a willingness to try other measures than verbal rebuke, the impatient blunderer from "dried up," and no more trouble was had from him.

MANASSAS, April 1—eots

SHERIFF'S SALE OF LAND.
By virtue of an order of the Court of Fairfax county, made at its March Court, 1867, in the suit of Robert J. Simpson vs. John Beckwith, I shall, on the 15th DAY OF APRIL, 1867, (that being Court day) in front of the Court House, in said county, sell, or cause to be sold, by public auction, FOURTEEN ACRES OF LAND, the property of said John Beckwith, being the lot lately assigned him in a division of that part of Wm. E. Beckwith's real estate, lying south of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad.

Fourth cash; the residue in three equal installments at six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from day of sale—the purchaser to give bonds for the deferred payments, and the title to be retained until the purchase is completed. Conveyance at the cost of purchaser. W. R. MULLAN, Sheriff, Fairfax county.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Pursuant to a decree of the Court of Fairfax county, I offer for sale the VALUABLE FARM, of which the late Rebecca Elgin died seized. Said farm lies upon the waters of "Scott's Run," adjoining the village of Lewinsville, on the Georgetown road, eight miles distant from the latter town, containing 24 acres of excellent land, of which is heavily timbered, the remainder in a good state of cultivation, and all under good fencing. The improvements consist of a comfortable dwelling, barn, stable, and all other necessary out-buildings. The superior quality of the land, its valuable timber and fine water power, (a never failing stream passing through the premises,) offer rare inducements to the agriculturist or artisan; its proximity to the Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria markets and its pleasant neighborhood render it one of the most desirable estates in this country. If not sold at private sale by the undersigned, I shall proceed to sell at public auction, at Manassas station, in the said county of Prince William, on the 6th DAY OF APRIL, 1867, if fair, if not the next fair day, those TRACTS or ARCELS OF LAND, named in said trust, for cash, to the highest bidder, viz: two hundred and forty acres, and one of ninety seven acres, being the same lands conveyed by said Bradford and wife to the said F. J. CANNON, trustee.

The above sale is postponed until the FIRST DAY OF MARCH 6 ts
